Supervisor went over an email sent by Beck Schroeder regarding the Chosen Ranch. He said that the board had three choices to respond to their law suit. First choice was to grant them the 2020 exemption. Second choice was to ask court to hear case "on the record", which would be to have the attorney submit the MTT on file but with no legal representation or presence in court. Third hire attorney for full on defense. Clerk Schefferly felt the board should go with option 2 but the board did not know how much that would cost. Trustee Quick wanted to wait to find out how much the attorneys would charge before the board made a decision. The board tabled the issue until the April meeting.

Treasurer Campbell informed the board that her deputy, Vicki Jones, had resigned and Mandy Campbell would be her new deputy. Ms. Campbell was out of town but would come to the next board meeting to be sworn in.
